(Crime Multi Agency Centre)

Multi Agency Centre (MAC) in Intelligence Bureau was developed to share timely inputs among various stakeholders involved in law enforcement. Similarly, it was envisaged to establish Crime Multi Agency Centre (Cri-MAC) under NCRB for online sharing of information on crime & criminals on 24x7 basis with various Law Enforcement Agencies and ensure seamless flow of information between them. Cri-MAC intends to improve the digital communication between disjointed units as this will lead to better and faster coordination. This will help in early detection and prevention of crime incidents across the country. Cri-MAC application is web based application and runs on secured network (CCTNS network). ## Search Data

The user can search for an existing alert from the Search page based on the following:

1. Search by FIR number

If the user knows the FIR number, click on the Search by FIR No. radio button and enter the FIR number. Then click Search.

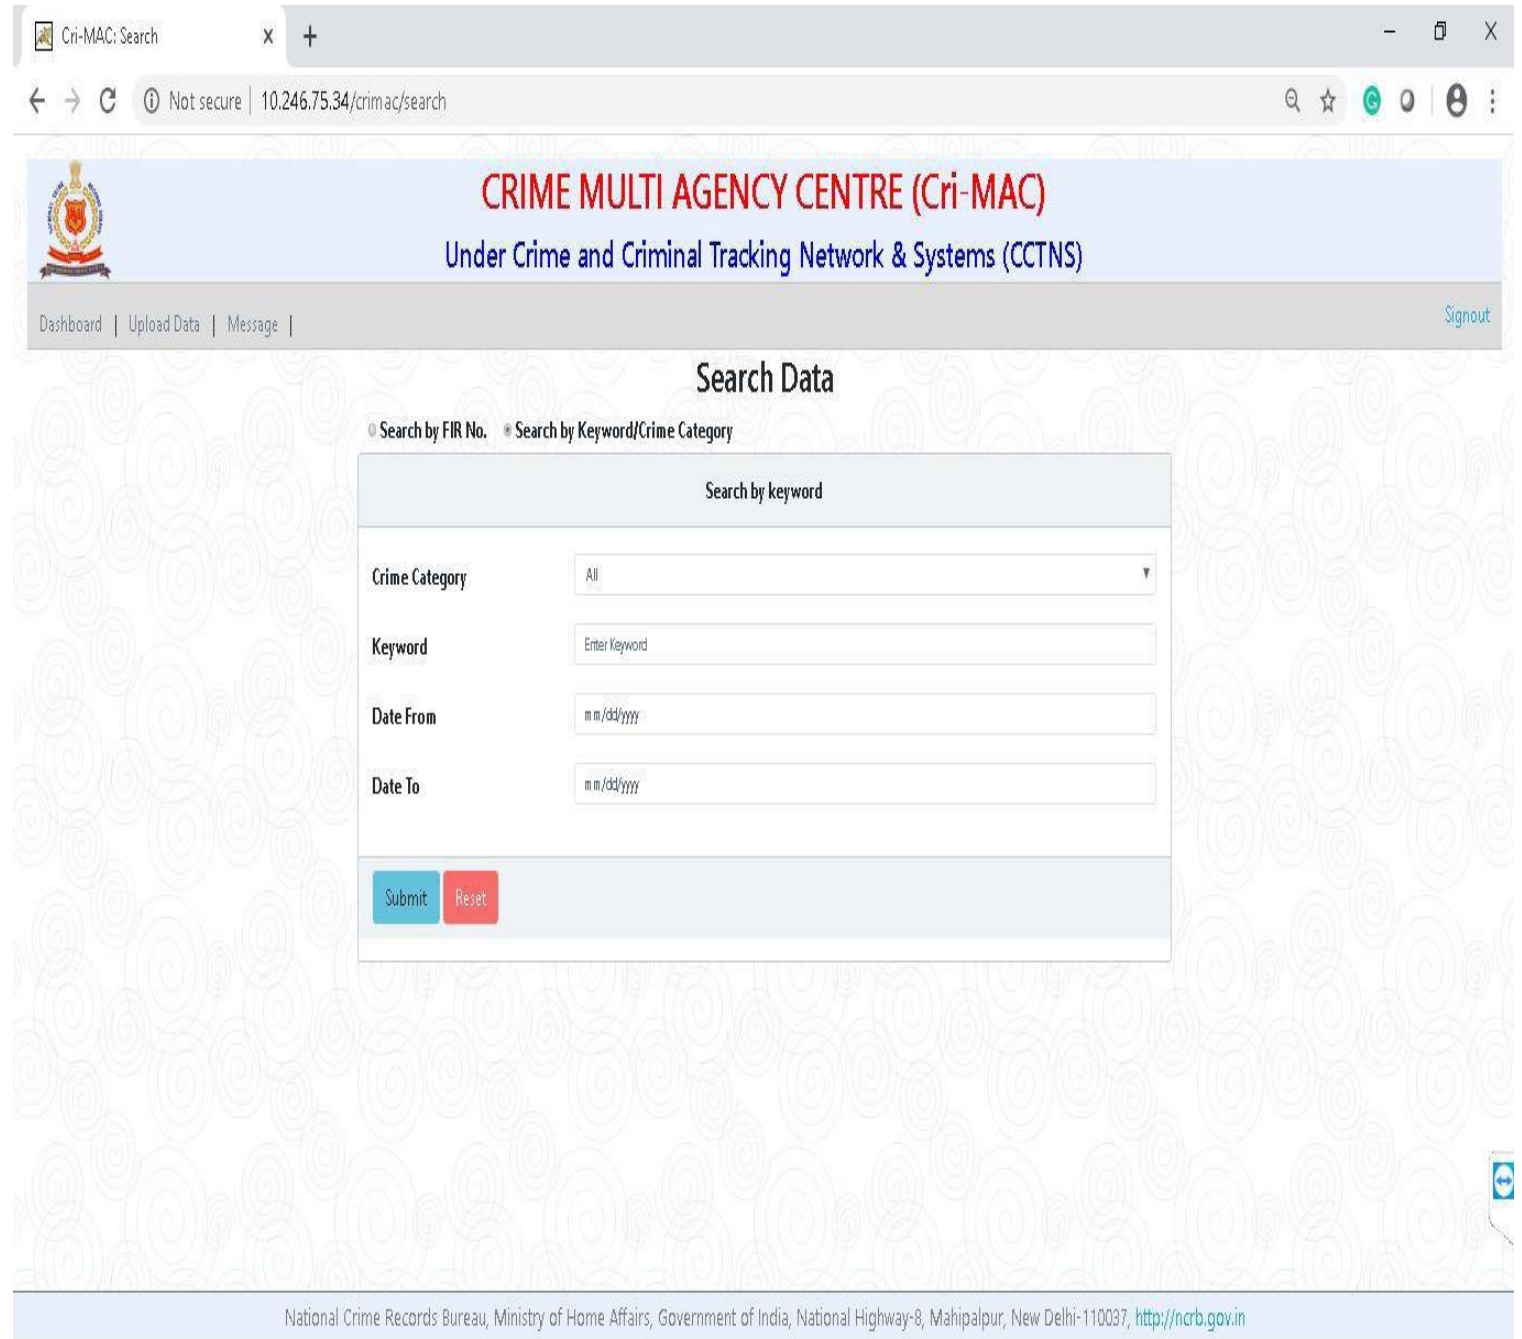

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying '10.246.75.34/crimac/search'. The page header includes the 'CRIME MULTI AGENCY CENTRE (Cri-MAC)' logo and the text 'Under Crime and Criminal Tracking Network & Systems (CCTNS)'. A navigation bar contains links for 'Dashboard', 'Upload Data', 'Message', and a 'Signout' button. The main section is titled 'Search Data' and features two radio buttons: 'Search by FIR No.' (which is selected) and 'Search by Keyword/Crime Category'. Below these, a form titled 'Search by FIR' contains a text input field labeled 'FIR No.' with a placeholder 'Enter 14 digits FIR Number'. At the bottom of the form are 'Submit' and 'Reset' buttons. The footer of the page provides contact information for the National Crime Records Bureau, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India, located at National Highway-8, Mahipalpur, New Delhi-110037, with the website <http://ncrb.gov.in>.

2. Search by Crime Category or any Keyword

If the user does not know the FIR number he can enter the crime category (i.e. the Window) of the alert or any text which he wants to search for in the alert description. Click on the Search by Crime Category/Keyword radio button. Following parameters need to be provided:

- ✓ Crime (Window) category
- ✓ Keyword
- ✓ Date range

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the title 'Cri-MAC: Search'. The address bar shows '10.246.75.34/crimac/search'. The page header features the National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB) logo and the text 'CRIME MULTI AGENCY CENTRE (Cri-MAC) Under Crime and Criminal Tracking Network & Systems (CCTNS)'. Below the header is a navigation bar with links for 'Dashboard', 'Upload Data', and 'Message', and a 'Signout' link. The main content area is titled 'Search Data' and contains two radio buttons: 'Search by FIR No.' and 'Search by Keyword/Crime Category'. The 'Search by Keyword/Crime Category' option is selected. Below this, there is a form titled 'Search by keyword' with the following fields: 'Crime Category' (a dropdown menu currently showing 'All'), 'Keyword' (a text input field with the placeholder 'Enter Keyword'), 'Date From' (a date input field with the placeholder 'm m/dd/yyyy'), and 'Date To' (a date input field with the placeholder 'm m/dd/yyyy'). At the bottom of the form are two buttons: 'Submit' and 'Reset'. The footer of the page contains the text: 'National Crime Records Bureau, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India, National Highway-8, Mahipalpur, New Delhi-110037, <http://ncrb.gov.in>'.
